

Debaters Take Top In District

Newton High's Forensics department over the years has accumulated an almost unbelievable record of wins. Besides the countless number of trophies that have been won, Newton High School has only missed going to the State Debate Contest twice in 30 years. The department is under the guidance of Mrs. Alma Moore.

The 1959-60 Forensics department is no exception to the startling record. Attending the District Debate Tournament in Wichita last weekend, the Newton Squad lost only one debate for the first place trophy. Wichita University played host to the District High School Meet which included eight Kansas high schools. The schools attending were: Wichita High School East, Wichita Southeast, Wichita South, Derby, El Dorado, Augusta, Valley Center, and Newton.

Melvin Moorhouse, Wichita University Debate Coach, organized the tournament with the assistance of Marci Welsh, former Newton High student.

Last year Marci Welsh, Darla McJilton, Jerry Dickson and Al Zavola took first place at the Wichita District representing Newton High School.

The team which took second place this year was Wichita East. This team gave Newton their only loss. On this team was John Moorhouse, (the son of the Wichita University Coach), Keith Williamson, John Fast, and Warren Ivy. They had a 9 wins and 5 loss record.

The Newton team with a tremendous 13 wins, 1 loss record consisted of Bill Brown, Lanny Unruh on the affirmative. Ed Nordstrom, Bill Getz and Susan Walton represented the negative.

Bench warmers or alternates are often vitally needed in many sports. Debate is no exception. Due to a severe cold, Bill Getz had difficulty with his voice Saturday morning. Faced with this dilemma, an alternate, Susan Walton, was called upon to debate on the negative team.

Next weekend, both first and second place district winners will attend Emporia State Teachers College at Emporia for the final state debate contest. Newton and Wichita East will represent the district in this area.

Five districts were held across the state. The winners of these tournaments who will take part in the state competition next weekend are: Wyandotte, Shawnee Mission North, Topeka, Lawrence, Garden City, Hutchinson, Fort Scott, Pittsburg, Wichita East, and Newton.

After ten rounds of debating the teams with the best records at the state contest will then enter semi-final and final contests. This is the first time semi-final and final contests have been included in the state meet. This will make the state meet an extremely difficult contest.

School support of the Newton team representing Newton High School over the weekend was tremendous. Telegrams were received from three speech classes and the remaining debaters.

The squad will be accompanied to the state debate contest this weekend by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Moore.

Newton High School— "Home of the Railroaders"

New Series XXXI

NEWTON, KANSAS, JANUARY 29, 1960

Number 6

NHS Hosts Wrestling Tourney

By Gary Rafferty

the league. His name is Jon Wick- linez had a record of eight wins

By Gary Raffety

Tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening, the Newton High School wrestling team will play host to Winfield, El Dorado, Hutchinson, and Wellington in the annual Ark Valley Tournament.

This is only Newton's second year in the Ark Valley and this is their second Valley Tournament. Last year's tournament ended in a tie between Wellington and Hutchinson. Newton in their first tournament competition last season finished fourth.

El Dorado, Hutchinson, and Wellington are the strongest and most experienced of the visiting Ark Valley foes. Newton has defeated Hutchinson and Winfield so far this season and have lost to El Dorado and Wellington.

There are going to be several outstanding wrestlers in this tournament from the participating teams. The Hutchinson Salt Hawks will bring with them a boy who is probably one of the best, if not the best, 127 lb. wrestler in the league. His name is Jon Wickle and should be one of the better wrestlers in the tournament.

El Dorado has an experienced and tough man in Jim Demo. He will be wrestling in the 120 lb. class for the Wildcats and should be a top contender in his weight class along with a Winfield veteran, Larry Pullock, who was one of the two wrestlers who were able to win matches against the Newton squad here last week.

The Wellington team, besides being one of the stronger teams in the tournament, has one of the best wrestlers in the state. His name is Richard Demoss and he is undefeated in the 145 lb. class and is definitely a strong favorite to win a first in his weight class in the tournament.

The host Newton Railers will be counting heavily on Albert Martinez in the 103 lb. class, Henry Sanseda in the 112 lb. class, and Mike Rhoades in the 165 lb. class. Before their match with Emporia Tuesday night at Emporia, Marquez had a record of eight wins and two losses, Sanseda had a record of ten wins and one loss, and Rhoades with a clean record of eight wins and no losses.

"This is going to be a very close tournament. Newton could finish first, or last just as easily, it's going to be that close, but I know we won't finish last!" said Coach David Winter.

Throughout the season, one big factor has always helped the Railer squad, that they have usually been in much better condition than their opponents. This same factor should help Newton greatly in their battle for first place as it has so noticeably been in their previous matches.

The tournament will open with the first round tonight at 7:00 p.m. in Lindley Hall. The second round will be held tomorrow at 9:00 a.m. and the finals will be held in the afternoon beginning at 2:00. The admission will be 50 cents per session or $1.00 for those who buy an Ark Valley Tournament Season Ticket.

The French Are Greeting You

"Bon jour, (Mademoiselle or Monsieur!), is a familiar greeting he members of the French club use to greet members in class or at club meetings.

The French Club has 17 members. There is only one officer, Sally Hawkins '61, President. Other matters, Miss Olive Anderson, club sponsor and French and Spanish instructor, handles since the club is not a large group.

The French club has held its first meeting of the year December 16, 1959 in room 307. Karen George was in charge of the program.

She spoke on "Christmas in France and other French customs". Afterwards games were played and refreshments were served.

Derby High Will Present Concert

Each year Newton High School's Music Department holds exchange assemblies with other Kansas High Schools. The first exchange program will be held February 5th when Newton High will be host to Derby High School Band and Mixed Chorus. The program will be held during an activity period in Lindley Hall.

The Newton High Band, Orchestra and mixed chorus will take their annual tour April 8th when they will perform at Southwestern College in Winfield. Newton High is scheduled for a morning program in Winfield and an afternoon program in Derby High School's new auditorium.

On April 11, Southwestern College from Winfield, mixed chorus and orchestra will present a program during activity period here. This will complete the exchange program between the two schools.

Prior to the trip, Newton High students and the general public will be given an opportunity of hearing the Newton High School musicians perform their tour program.

Former Student Is Clerk to Court

A 1949 graduate of Newton High School, Larry Gunnels, has been named law clerk to the United States Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whittaker for the court's 1960 term.

Two clerks are named for each of the nine justices.

Mr. Gunnels was active on the debate squad during his years at NHS. He was also a member of National Honor Society, Hi-Y club, and band. He participated in the Junior and Senior plays and was awarded the Forensic pin, Thespian pin, and Scholarship pins.

After graduation, Mr. Gunnels attended Ottawa University and received his BA degree in 1957. He is now a senior at Washington University School of Law at St. Louis.

He is editor-in-chief of the school's Law Quarterly.

Guys And Gals of NHS Do You Rate As a Date?

Everyone sometimes in their high school years has been in embarrassing and ticklish situations concerning the do's and don'ts of dating.

Here are a few hints and helps to see how you will rate as a date. Strictly for Gals:

1. It's Friday night and you're dateless. You decide to (a) call him up and ask him over; (b) wander down to Johnny's and see what's cooking; (c) stay home with a good book.

Sure, you guessed it—(c) is your answer. That way only you know you don't have a date. Why advertise it?

2. Your blind date turns out to be not your type. You (a) fake a headache and go home; (b) grin and bear it; (c) turn your charms on the other men present.

Of course, (b) is the only answer. Other fellows may be watching and they'll think more of you for being a good sport.

Strictly for Guys:

1. When you want to send your date a corsage, you, (a) ask her what she is wearing so you can get flowers to match her costume; (b) buy her your own favorite flowers; (c) send white so it will go with anything.

If you can't find out what she is wearing, white is your best bet.

2. You are escorting a girl to a dance given by another girl you know. You (a) dance very number with your date; (b) dance with the hostess, her mother and the guest of honor as well as your own date; (c) cut the rug with anyone you like.

To have a clear conscience all the way around, (b) is the answer.

Your own good time will be made if you do your duty and make other people happy. How do you rate as a date?—J. K.

Kansas State College Says Learn Instead of Memorize

Learn, don't memorize, is one of the study tips the K-State arrive at the test site so far in Counseling Center emphasizes. Donald Hoyt, director, and David Danskin, associate director, stressed this point and added 10 others. The ten points:

1. Review! If you haven't read the last few chapters, don't scramble to catch up on all that studying you've previously ignored. It's better to know that material you have studied thoroughly than to ignore it for new material.

2. Allot your time according to the need of the course. Plan your study time in advance.

3. The kind of review is important. Students should be sure they can recall relevant material. Utilization of classnotes will help this. Another helpful hint is to

5. Before the exam—relax. Don't waste by worrying.

6. If you come to a question and your mind goes blank, skip it and come back later. Often your memory will return. Often too, another question will give a tip that will jostle the memory.

8. Expect and plan for "goof-off" time. A person needs alternating activities.

10. Be sure and get enough rest. Cramming hurts more than it helps because lack of sleep causes fuzziness of the mind.

A general rule to remember is that learning is more efficient when it is spaced. Four one-hour study periods with breaks is more beneficial than one four-hour session.

Personality Girl

Her hobby is Barry, she's blond, blue-eyed, cute, full of pep and our Personality Girl of this issue. She is the Secretary-treasurer of Thespians and was in last year's Junior play "The Defiance of David Charles."

Carol Lee Decker

Blue is her favorite color and fried chicken with french fries or baked potatoes or . . ." (Maybe she just likes food).

All kinds of music except some hillbilly are favored by our Personality Girl. Her favorite musician is piano player Roger Williams.

When asked what her most embarrassing moment was, she said, "None that can be told, unless maybe — No not that!!!" (What could be so embarrassing?)

There is one moment in everyone's life that can be considered the most exciting and for our Personality Girl it was when she was elected cheerleader. She added, "— and of course when I started going with Barry."

After that one you probably guessed that Carol Lee Decker is our Personality Girl. Her future plans are to go with Nan Blosser to Kansas City and get a job in the fall.

Nancy Okerberg Honored By DAR

The annual Good Citizenship Award sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution has been awarded to Nancy Okerberg, Newton High School senior.

Each year the Newton chapter of the D. A. R. honors a senior girl with this award.

Swap Column

by Evelyn Voth

While reading through the exchange papers, an article in the Junction City Blue-Jay struck my eye about a Kayettes meeting. Kayetes is on the same order as the Y-Teends. The group of girls was divided into teams and each team was given newspapers. From these newspapers, the group was to design a dress for one of the girls to model. As a result the girls represented a number of countries in this manner: French hat, Spanish poncho, and a British walking skirt.

Here is an ode to those night-owls, the night before, from the Ark City Ark Lite.

Now I lay me down to sleep,
The subject is boring,
The discussion deep.
If teacher should finish before I wake,
Give me a shove, for goodness' sake.

"To be a senior" is the dream of every sophomore according to the Wyandotte Pantograph.

The Things Some Students Say!

All of us have phrases that we continually use over and over again. Here are a few typical statements that some NHS students and teachers are found guilty of using many times.

Vernon Smith — "I dunno"

Kay Hanna — "The old Boop"

Miss Lange — "The assignment for tomorrow is . . ."

Bev. Miller — "Hon-n-ne"

Jay Hill — "I don't know what happened to the pictures!"

Mr. Griswold — "That reminds me when I . . ."

Mr. Albaugh — "Well now, Ladies and Gentlemen"

Duane Lyon — "Listen, listen"

Mr. Stuart — "But this is digressing"

J. T. Kelso — "Is this right or is this right?"

Bill Brown — "No lie"

Nancy Blosser — "Ye-a-a-h"

Anne Simpson — "Oh, you guys"

I'd like to be a senior,
And with the seniors stand;
A schedule pencil on my ear,
And a notebook in my hand.
I wouldn't be an angel
For angels have to sing;
I'd rather be a senior
And not do anything.
To close, here is a thought for the week:

The elevator boy is the only person we know who makes a success of running other people down.

Have You Lost Your P.-J's?

One pair of pajama bottoms and one brown left shoe are part of the many miscellaneous items found in the lower counters of the Senior High Office's cabinets. This is also called the NHS Lost and Found Department.

Two drawers and two huge shelves hold many interesting and mysterious items which include one delapidated football, one ragged corduroy shirt, four socks, five jackets, twelve right handed gloves and eleven left handed gloves, fifteen pencils, plus assorted scarfs and caps.

"Unfortunately", said Mrs. Opal Cornick, office secretary, "some of these articles have been here for years".

The office threatens, because of lack of space, to send the usable articles to the Thrift Shop. So Newton High students better check for their missing property in the office before it is missing forever.

Teacher of The Week

This week the Newtonian salutes Mrs. Doris Morton as Teacher of the Week. She is one of the "shab" teachers of the Newtonian.

ant. Students should be sure they can recall relevant material. Utilization of classnotes will help this. Another helpful hint is to stimulate the exam situation by self-examination.

4. Don't panic! On a question you are not sure about, think not only of the facts, but where you read them and what they mean.

Invisible Errors Become Visible

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly. You can hunt till you are dizzy but it will somehow get by. Till the forms are off the presses, it is strange how still it keeps;

It shrinks down in a corner and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error, too small for human eyes, Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The teacher stares with horror, then she grabs her hair and groans; The editor drops her head upon her hand and moans.

The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be, But that typographical error is the only thing you can see.

Jan. 29 Birthday

Happy Birthday, Kenny Akers, this is your day!

Since you were born under the sign of Aquarius your future is as follows:

You have new honors to gain and they may be thrust upon you against your desire. These honors may be good or bad. (Follow the Scout motto, "Be Prepared")

A restful time is indicated after your very swift tempo which you have been keeping for the last few weeks. Also a new romance is foretold in the stars which will appear in the not too distant future and it will surely meet your approval!

Happy Birthday again, Kenny.

that learning is more efficient when it is spaced. Four one-hour study periods with breaks is more beneficial than one four-hour session.

"Skipping breakfast for another hour of sleep before a final exam won't help students. It will make them feel tired, be nervous and not think as well," adds Eileen Zeitler, assistant professor of Foods and Nutrition, former head research dietitian at the Mayo clinic.

Personality Boy

Have you seen a tall, handsome, blue eyed, light brown haired boy walking down Senior Alley with a girl known as Carol Decker? If you have, then you probably know our Personality Boy for this issue is Barry Fiedler.

Barry is the president elect of "Boys Pep Club" and has belonged to other clubs such as Latin Club and is now a member of the Newton "N" club.

His hobbies are sports and Carol Decker. (That's a hobby?) Since sports is one of his hobbies, he has participated in football since the 8th grade and lettered in it as a Senior.

Every one has a favorite food and Barry certainly has his, pizza! But then that's not so bad when you find out what his favorite color is. It's a purple shade of chartruse. His favorite recording artist is Henry Mancini.

Barry says his most embarrassing moment was when he led the wrong cheer in the Boys Pep Club and to match that his most exciting experience was in watching Jon Coleman cheerleading.

Barry's future plans include attending Kansas University where he will major in Psychiatry.

Barry Fiedler

Each year the Newton chapter of the D. A. R. honors a senior girl with this award.

The actual selection of the girl is carried on by the senior girls of the high school. In the social classes, girls were first asked to nominate a girl qualified for the award. From this list the top names were placed on a ballot and then voted on again by the senior girls.

This year six girls were nominated; Nancy Okerberg, Miriam Werner, Celia Vogt, Kay Kaiser, Dini Sills and Joyce Kohen.

These girls were chosen because of their citizenship, dependability, service and patriotism.

Nancy and her mother will be honored at the chapter's February meeting. At this meeting, Nancy will be presented a pin by the D. A. R. Good Citizenship Award chairman, Mrs. Allan Mills.

Nancy's name will be sent on to the State Chapter of D. A. R. where the State Chairman will select name to be sent to the National Society.

If You Were?

Several boys around NHS were asked, "What would you do if you were a girl?" and some answered with a quick witty reply while others took a little time to think. Here are the results:

Larry Clark—Be fine!

Henry Sanseda—Be a lady wrestler.

Bruce Kaufman—Wear bermuda shorts.

Gary Wilson—Go with Bob Tieszn.

Speedy Nunns—Be a girls gym teacher.

Barry Fiedler—Fight with Carol Decker over Barry Fiedler.

Randy Zook—Be a cheerleader.

Bob Dickson—Build a girls pool hall.

Jon Coleman—Go with Richard Fast.

Lynn Weas—Wouldn't do what some girls do!

Carl Nelson—Let my hair grow over my ears.

Is this right?"

Bill Brown — "No lie"

Nancy Blosser — "Ye-a-a-h"

Anne Simpson — "Oh, you guys"

Mr. Terry — "Seriously folks, seriously"

Nancy Okerberg — "Thanks a whole bunch"

Jimmy Rodgers — "Ey Gads"

Boys Pep Club — "Are we going to win. . ."

And Their Past Is Revealed--

The hardest working people around Newton High School are the teachers. Many amusing stories have been told in the various classes by teachers concerning their "hard pasts". Here are some of the ways in which these teachers claimed to have made their first dollar.

"I used to trap muskrats when I was in school," stated Mr. S. B. Griswold, Biology teacher. Mr. Phil Scott, social teacher spent his earlier days herding cows. Another animal - lover is Mr. Alden Allbaugh, "I used to trap skunks and possum when I was a kid."

Mrs. Christine Hetzel earned her first money typing in the typing department at K. U. "I used to mow lawns and sell weekly newspapers when I wasn't even eleven years old!" exclaimed Miss Wilma Lee, Physical Education teacher. Home economics teacher, Mrs. Hazel Gordon babysat for her spare money.

Mr. Franklin King remembers the good old days working on a farm. Mr. Leo Brandt claims that he learned in the dear school of experience when he was working on the road, digging ditches way back when. Mr. Bill Huffman, Typing teacher, says, "I washed dishes in a malt shop for only 22½ cents an hour."

This week the Newtonian salutes Mrs. Doris Morton as Teacher of the Week. She is one of the "baby" teachers at the Newton High School. This is her first year of regular teaching. She teaches sophomore English.

Mrs. Morton was married last summer after she had completed college. Mr. Morton is also a teacher, teaching at Robinson Intermediate School in Wichita. Mrs. Morton has substituted in The Wichita School System but prefers regular teaching much more.

"I was originally from Meade, Kansas and I knew very little of Newton except it was a 'basketball town'," says Mrs. Morton.

She obtained her Bachelor of Science degree from Emporia State Teachers College and she is now working on her Masters Degree. Her future plans are to go to school next summer and to do some correspondence work to finish her degree.

Mrs. Morton was very active at college for she was editor-in-chief of Quivira, the College literary magazine; worked on the school paper, The Bulletin, for four years as editor and reporter; and was the editor of the yearbook, called the Sunflower.

Mrs. Morton believes that her students are at a fascinating time of life and they couldn't be more interesting. "I really enjoy my work," said Mrs. Morton.

She enjoys reading and listening to classical and jazz music. "I have also been trying to get Miss Lee to teach me how to bowl," added Mrs. Morton.

She believes that in teaching grammar and literature, discussion is one of the best ways to learn the material.

"Since this is my first year, I feel that I am learning as much from my students as they are from me," said Mrs. Morton.

"Go, Shockers, Go," is a familiar chant during football or basketball games at Veterans field or the field house as the students of the University of Wichita cheer their team on to victory.

"Our Alma Mater, Wichita stands proudly on the hill
Our sons and daughters bow to thee
Our hearts with praise we fill
Then, hail! our Alma Mater!
Hail! Grand and True
Long wave the Yellow and the Black
O Wichita, Here's to You!"

The 130-acre campus houses the different buildings of the many varied activities of the University. W. U. has two dormitories, Grace Wilkie Hall, for women and men's dormitory. At both dorms, residents have pleasant living conditions and congenial companions in these modern facilities.

The Men's Dormitory accommodates nearly 140 men, Grace Wilkie Hall has 120 residents.

While the Campus Activities Center is a part of the educational program of the university it is more than a classroom. Located in the heart of the campus, it is the center of college community life. It serves as a laboratory of citizenship, training students in social responsibility and preparing them for leadership in their communities. The CAC offers: food service, campus bookstore, recreation area, meeting rooms, music browsing room, television room, (with color T.V., too) a nursery and a barber shop.

The athletic teams and students in general at WU are referred to as 'Wheatshockers,' 'Shockers,' and 'Shocks.'

Teacher Finishes 45th. Year in 1960

The fall of 1915 was a very special time in the life of Miss Christine E. Miller (now Mrs. Ernest Hetzel.) It was then that she came from Lawrence Business College with her diploma and a B.M. in piano from Kansas University to Newton High School. Nine typewriters graced the north fourth of the room now used by Miss Elvera Voth in the Santa Fe Junior High. When the Senior High moved into its present building there were thirty-two typewriters, now increased to forty-two, crowded into that same small room.

"I taught seven classes in two rooms at one time and during the Second World War. I taught three classes at one time — bookkeeping in 312, typewriting in 311, and shorthand in 310. Some of the best students I've had came from those classes," Mrs. Hetzel recalled.

When Mrs. Hetzel came to Newton, there were two years of bookkeeping and second-year typing could be taken without shorthand. She managed to remove the second year of bookkeeping and has substituted a general business course in its place in which spelling and fundamental mathematics are emphasized in addition to the regular subject matter of such a course.

"Accuracy, not speed, has always been the goal in typing. Without accuracy, a person is useless in an office. However, the top students usually type around seventy words per minute. One hundred twenty words per minute is the goal in second-year shorthand; there, again, the office standard is emphasized," commented Mrs. Hetzel.

Mrs. Hetzel believes firmly that it is every teacher's duty to take the students as they enter the classroom up from where they are if the student desires to "go up."

Junior Hi-Lites

By Bruce Kaufman

Mr. Frank Colborn's 9th grade speech class had a program and a party during activity period Wednesday, January 20.

Chisholm Junior High School has been having their class assemblies during activity periods; 7th grade, Wednesday January 20; 8th grade, Thursday January 21; and 9th grade, Friday January 22.

Principal L. B. Gregg gave a talk on the topic, "Don't Sell Yourself Short", and then showed a film entitled "How to Succeed in School".

El Dorado won over Chisholm 32 to 27, and Ark City also edged them out 41 to 39.

The Santa Fe Pep Club made a school pennant out of felt in the school colors and have been using it at their home games.

The Pep Club also put on a pep assembly. It was a model meeting. The officers: Nancy Glover, President; Barbara Razor, secretary; Mary Grove, treasurer; and Mary Dickens reporter were in charge.

Miss Lucille Enz showed slides of her trip to Alaska and Hawaii to a joint meeting of the Hi-Y and Y-Teens, Wednesday, January 20.

The Freshmen received the results of their Differential Aptitude tests Wednesday from Mr. Alden Allbaugh, counselor in their English classes.

Santa Fe Junior High beat Winfield 39 to 38 in an overtime.

Newtonian Newspaper Presents Its Working Photographers

"Thanks for these three pictures but aren't those others developed yet?", are words heard almost every week by Gary Vance, '60, Joe Smiley, '61, and Jay Hill, '61, school photographers for the Railroader and Newtonian.

All three boys can usually be found in the Newtonian darkroom in the journalism room 304. They spend about twenty five hours a week taking and processing pictures.

When a picture is scheduled to be taken, the photographers are required to snap the picture, get the names, develop the negative, make the print and then send it to the Kansan office where the Scanograph electrically sketches and draws the picture on plastic. The picture is then ready for the printing.

The Newtonian spends approximately $10 an issue on engraving alone.

Gary, Joe and Jay can be seen in the middle of many school activities such as games, dances, plays and assemblies busily taking pictures.

From Theseus To Catch-As-Catch-Can

Wrestling is probably the oldest and most universal of all sports because it is a natural competitive sport. Some authorities say that wrestling was known as early as 3000 BC in Egypt and Babylonia. And in ancient Greece it was one of the most popular sports because it was thought of as an art and a science. To them, it expressed the ideal of ignorance and brute force being conquered by civilization.

The Grecian athletics developed two types of wrestling the "upright" style and the "ground" style. The object of upright wrestling was to throw the opponent to the ground and in the event both contestants fell to the ground the match was automatically finished. Ground wrestling, on the other hand, was a combination of boxing and wrestling. It allowed biting and kicking and the contest continued until one contestant admitted defeat.

Wrestling has changed since the early Grecian period of upright and ground wrestling. Today the two prevalent styles are Greco-Roman and Catch-As-Catch-Can. The emphasis in the Greco-Roman style is on standing holds. The contestants are permitted to seize each other anywhere above the belt or trip each other. A fall is scored when one of the contestants forces the two shoulders of his opponents to the ground at the same time. Bulk and endurance count greatly in this style.

The catch-as-catch-can style emphasises the prone holds, after the opponent has been brought to the mat. Its popularity is explained by the fact that it is a very free style and allows a greater latitude to the contestants. It encourages and rewards strategy

Grapplers Beat Salt Hawks, Vikings Railers Hope To Win Next Three

by Larry Clark

The Newton High School wrestlers defeated their first really tough team January 4, as they downed the Hutchinson Salt Hawks. The Railers won handily in the light weights, and held their own in the rest of the match to win 22-20.

Hutchinson was tough all the way down the line as both teams won six matches, but Newton got two falls and gave up only one which accounted for the two point difference.

The Railroader light weight strength showed as the team marked up 16 points, giving none in the first four bouts. They also got two pins, one by Gaglione in the 95 lb. class and Sanseda in the 112 lb. class. The other wins were by Martinez, 103 lb. 5-0; Lindsey, 120 lbs., 6-1; Sadowski, 154 lb., 3-2; and Rhoades, 165 lb., 5-1.

The Newton Railers went down to defeat at the hands of Wellington as they were outwrestled 30-18 in an Ark Valley League match.

Only four Newton men won their matches, three of them with pins. Jerry Gaglione, Mike Rhoades, and John Solis each pinned their man, and Al Martinez outpointed his opponent 7-4.

Railers 4th at D. C., 1st in Valley

The Newton High School Railers took fourth place at the Dodge City Tournament of Champions January 14, 15, and 16. The Railers defeated Rozel High School the first game, and then lost the next two games to Shawnee-Mission North, and Ward High School.

The Wichita East Blue Aces won the tournament by defeating Dodge City, Ward, and Shawnee-Mission North High School.

There were many awards presented at the Tournament of Champions, one of the awards was the selection of basketball play-

The Newton High School wrestlers went down to defeat before the Blue Acres of Wichita East in Wichita. But the score 29-16 was better than expected, and Newton wrestling Coach Dave Winter said he was very pleased with his boys.

"They looked much better than I thought they would against this team," said Coach Winter.

Henry Sanseda took his first loss of the season after nine wins with a 3-0 decision in the 112 lb. match with Dave Unruh who has gone undefeated this season.

It was a night of surprises in Lindley Hall January 21 as Coach Dave Winter's wrestling squad put on the most exciting match seen here this year as they posted a 40-8 win over Winfield.

In spite of the one-sided score, Winfield was every bit as tough as expected. They were tough, and more experienced, but the Newton twelve had, in words of Coach Winter, "All the fight in the world you could ask for,—and then some."

It was no doubt a night of surprises as Newton's lighter middle weights, went on the mats to win. Even when they were behind in points they still fought to win and did.

Winfield in a league game and to Shawnee Mission North and Kansas City Ward in the Dodge City Invitational Tournament, by defeating the Ark City Bulldogs 58-33.

For the first third of the game it looked as though the Bulldogs had the game in the bag as they jumped to an early 5-1 lead. Vernon Smith tied up the game at the end of the first quarter, but then Ark City went ahead again in the first of the second quarter. Then the Railers picked up steam and the game was no longer in doubt as the half ended 28-19.

The third quarter saw the Railers rolling in top form. Their de-

The biggest and happiest surprise of the evening was Bob Clary. In his third match, after being easily pinned in his first match he went out and pinned his man in 2:57 minutes.

But the Railers had something else besides "fight". It is something they have had that has been important in every match they have played this year. They av than their opponents.

In all of Newtons matches this year, one fact has stood out which will go a long way toward making Newton a tough contender, have played this year. They have more remaining than their opponents.

Ark Valley Standings

This last weekend was a weekend of upsets. First the only unbeaten team in the league Winfield was smashed 52 to 40 by the last place Wellington crew. Also the second place Hutchinson Salt Hawks were beaten by El Dorado 57-56. And of course the Railroaders stomped the Arkansas City Bulldogs 58 to 33. This gives the Railers a 55.7 point per game average and the best defensive average in the Ark Valley of 39.5 points per game.

Tonight, the Newton Railroaders will hope to continue their winning ways by traveling to Wellington and playing the Wellington Cruaders, who now are last in the league. The Railers play their next home game against Emporia on February 2.

The Crusaders are powered by seniors Kelly Cobean, Mike Glick, Gerald Summers, Bill Mott, Jim Stark, Dennis Platt, Steve Middleton, Wayne Host, and Harold Porter.

After playing the Emporia Basketball team on the second of February the Railroaders will travel to Hutchinson to play the Salt Hawks. The first meeting of these two teams proved to be fatal for Salt Hawks. They lost 58-41 as the Railers proved to be underdurable.

The Salt Hawks are at a disadvantage this year because they have only one returning letterman, Fred Stanfield. Although they lack experience they are tied with Newton in the Ark Valley.

ers for the All Tournament Team. Vernon Smith was one of the few chosen by coaches as one of the members of the All-Tournament team.

Almost all schools were represented by cheerleaders. The players of the teams voted and chose the All-Tournament Cheerleading Squad. Newton High School did not place in this category since they were represented only by four male cheerleaders. The cheerleaders selected for the squad were from East, Haven, Ward, and Rozel High Schools.
